

Kristoffer Vogler

Education

MD, University of Copenhagen, May 2009.

Workexperience

Neurosurgery, orthopedic surgery, internal medicine, psychiatry, family medicine, pediatrics.

One year on contract with the Danish Military, including a seven weeks deployment in Afghanistan and three missions with Doctors without Borders, to DR Congo, Nepal and Liberia.

At present specializing in pediatrics on a four year contract from October 2017.

Activities

Member of the Danish board of directors for Doctors without Borders in Denmark (Læger uden Grænser, Danmark) and as a board member participant in a project looking at how to establish operational medical research in MSF-projects in collaboration with Danish researchers.

Associate member of the Committee on Global Child Health under the Danish Pediatrics Society (Udvalget for Global Børnesundhed (UGBS))

Teaching on the course "Health in Emergencies" lead by Siri Tellier at Copenhagen School of Global Health. Subjects: Rapid Health Assessment and Communicable Diseases.

Fields of interest

Treatment of severe acute malnutrition.

Intoxications due to traditional medicine.

Asthma in LAMIC.

Pediatric infectious diseases.

Research projects

Working on a project in Kyrgyzstan looking at how to increase the use of spacers in the treatment of asthma among children under five. A part of the Fresh Air Project lead by Jesper Kjærsgaard.

Publications

Three articles accepted and awaiting publication in Ugeskrift for Læger (Danish Medical Journal).

(last revision February 8th, 2018)